

March 2, 1984

LB 825

PRESIDENT: We are 10 minutes and 30 seconds into the bill.

SENATOR DECAMP: So we have 3 minutes and something.

PRESIDENT: About five-five.

SENATOR DECAMP: Senator Chambers, let me try to con you.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Con me?

SENATOR DECAMP: Con you.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: He knows how to con me.

SENATOR DECAMP: The amendments become the bill. If we adopted the amendments, advanced it, I would give you a white copy. We would sit down during Commonwealth hearings maybe even, go over these things, talk about them, explain or answer anything...no?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: No, brother.

SENATOR DECAMP: Conning you won't work, how about begging you?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: John, to con you are to wise, to beg you are ashamed so neither of those things will occur.

SENATOR DECAMP: Let me try begging you.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I have serious concerns...

SENATOR DECAMP: It is a good bill, I am telling you, it really is.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Maybe it is, and if it is a good bill, I am sure it will survive any questions that I have but one mistake people make when they put these kind of bills on consent calendar they feel everybody will feel obligated to just go along and buy everything, and say in the interest of being friendly. I wish I could that but I can't.